Non Profit Fundraising Solutions for the Next Normal

Pivot to Virtual Ideas

Distribution will be important for non profits in the next normal

1 | DIRECT MAIL

Utilize brochures and postcards to introduce your community to new virtual fundraising events.

- Print is the most trusted form of communication: use our new durable synthetic paper that can be wiped clean and shows recipients we care about keeping them safe in this new environment
- Direct donors to virtual online landing pages for donations
- Share stories of hope and success that will inspire others to give as we face these challenging times together

2 | DONOR FORMS, ENVELOPES, LABELS

Plan fundraising campaigns to reach new donors or thank current donors for continuing to support when events and large group gatherings may still have to be minimized.

- Easily include an informational form and return envelope for donations

3 | Post-it® Notes

Post-it® Notes will be visible in the home and continue to share your message long after the first impression.

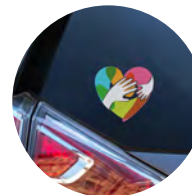

- Consistently connect with your donors and constituents to keep them engaged and aware of how their financial support helps so many in this time of great need

TAKE YOUR MESSAGE MOBILE

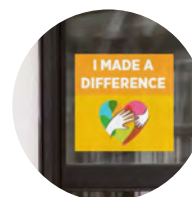

DOOR HANGERS

Canvas your community to keep your cause top of mind while social distancing.

CAR DECALS

Handing out car decals that support your nonprofit are a great way to share your message from a safe distance.

WINDOW DECALS

Send prospective donors a window decal to remind them your cause continues to need their support.

Connection is Key

Your mission remains intact. Keep drop off locations safe in the next normal

4 | RETRACTABLE BANNERS

A great way to adjust your messaging to the changing environment and highlight new hours for drop-offs or pick-ups.

- Remind donors that our mission remains intact and we need them now more than ever
- Remind your community that their support helps us change the lives of many

5 | FLOOR DECALS

A low-cost way to encourage social distancing while social connecting to give to those in need.

- Create queue waiting spaces outside
- Made of durable plastic
- Use pre-designed templates or be creative and design your own

6 | LARGE FORMAT SIGNS

Identify designated parking areas and waiting zones to drop off or pick up donations.

- Plastic yard signs are a cost-effective way to share your message on-site or around town
- A-Frame sandwich board signs are mobile and can be used indoors or outdoors

DONATION DROP OFF SAFETY

CLOTH FACE MASKS

It's important to make sure people feel safe at your event. Supply volunteers and attendees with pleated cotton cloth face masks to promote a safety.

MASK HOOKS

Provide mask hooks for volunteers and staff. Can be customized with your non profit logo, are disposable, sanitary and made from heavy duty recycled paper.

FASTURN LABELS

Make labels available for donors to mark their boxes upon drop off. Creates a safe environment of "drop and go" with limited contact and communication.
